Membership Details

To get the most out of your membership, first-year professional, associate, young professional and student members are required to join a networking group (local chapter, council or community).

After the first year of membership, local chapter, council or community membership is optional. You may join one or more groups.

MEMBERSHIP TYPES

FM Professional

Facility practitioners and educators whose primary responsibilities are to provide, oversee or teach one (or more) facility management competency.

Associate

Individuals whose primary responsibilities include: business development; sales and/or marketing as a consultant; representation of a manufacturer, vendor, dealer or distributor; and/or provider of facility-related products and services.

Young Professional

Individuals who are 35 years of age or younger.

Student

Candidates who are in full-time study at an accredited college or university.

Discovery

Individuals new to the profession or those who do not primarily work in FM. Have access to limited benefits. New members only.

Retired

Members in good standing upon their permanent retirement from full-time facility management practice, business development, sales and/or marketing.

LOCAL CHAPTERS

Engage and connect with local facility management professionals.

INDUSTRY COUNCILS

The 16 councils support the specialized interests and job responsibilities of facility management professionals within specific industries.

COMMUNITIES

The seven communities of practice are based on common interests and goals in specific FM competency areas.

IFMA offers Group pricing for training and events. Email membership@ifma.org for more information.

GROUP MEMBERSHIP PLAN

A plan administrator must be identified to serve as a liaison between the group and IFMA staff, and to receive the annual group renewal invoice.

- ▶ All memberships within the group belong to the organization and not the individual.
- ▶ The group pricing only applies to Associate and/or Professional memberships in Tier 1 countries.
- ▶ Young Professionals can be included on the group invoice but will not receive a discounted rate.
- ▶ All memberships on the group plan belong to the organization and not the individual.
- ▶ All memberships in the group plan are billed on a single annual invoice and must be paid at the same time. Group members are not contacted individually regarding renewing.
- ▶ Additional members can be added and invoiced immediately.
- ▶ Membership changes may be made by the plan administrator throughout the membership year. If a member in the group plan leaves your organization, you can substitute another employee for the remainder of the membership year.
- ▶ Current IFMA memberships can be pro-rated to match the group's paid through date.
- ▶ A plan administrator must be identified to serve as a liaison between the group and IFMA staff, and to receive the annual group renewal invoice.
- ▶ First time members must join a chapter, council or community the first year of membership.
- ▶ All members in the group plan must have a base membership and have the option to add networking group memberships.
